

Inner Circle Partner UPDATE

Accelerating the Gospel through Targeted Grants and Scholarships

June 22, 2012

Dear Partner,

Things are coming together for Strategic Global Mission! As always, Mary Jo and I are overwhelmed by your love and support. Your encouragement means the world to us.

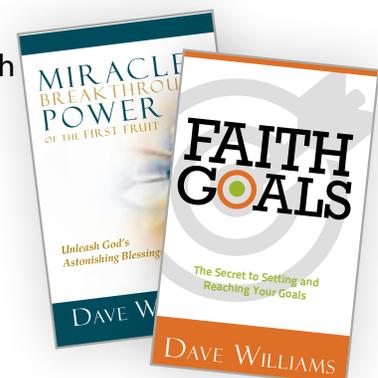

At the end of last month, Mary Jo and I spent a little time in Florida preparing for the Church Leadership School. We had a great time of learning and impartation with all the participants from every branch of ministry: pastors, music and media leaders, elders, deacons, helps ministers and more learned something of value during this time.

When I wrote you last month, I was right in the middle of participating in the Assemblies of God District Council. I was thrilled and honored to offer a three-part Influence Seminar during that week. One of the sessions covered Faith Goals, and I heard so many people say that learning about the benefits of setting goals—and having a presentation of a practical plan for reaching them—was a dramatic, life-changing experience.

Two Books Reprinted

Because Faith Goals has been such a successful book, and now a training session, we are working on re-editing and reprinting both the book and the companion workbook. We're also reprinting another popular book, Miracle Breakthrough Power of the First Fruit. Both these books will be available soon. The Faith Goals Workbook is available now. Some important people helped in producing these two books and the workbook, and I want to thank all our faithful volunteers who gave us a hand. Thanks Nancy, Larry, Jean, and Dave! You're the best!

428 Update—Thank You!

Demolition is 95% finished at the new building. The architect's plans were submitted to the township, and we anticipate receiving the building permits very soon. By the time you receive this newsletter construction should be under way. I'm so excited to get into the new building and get everything organized so we can use every minute to its best advantage and have a place for our volunteers to pitch in! As Mary Jo says, "We're going to have such a good time!"

Pacesetting Leadership School for Missionaries...and You!

The media files from the last time I taught Pacesetting Leadership have arrived and we're starting work on the final product. There will be CDs, DVDs, and a workbook that will comprise the entire course work of this ground breaking teaching. Pacesetting Leadership is really the "foundation" for everything else I have taught over the past 30 years. We are working with our missionaries to get the updated course translated into several different languages. The more countries that experience this course the more quickly the Good News can reach every living person. Your gifts to SGM are helping us get this innovative material to the nations—so they can be transformed...like Siberia!

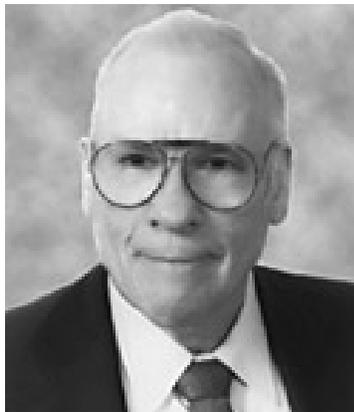

Important Dates

I'll be speaking at Mount Hope Church on Sunday, July 1st, and Sunday, July 8th. I can't wait to be back "home" in the pulpit with my church family again. I thank Pastor Kevin for his gracious invitation to come for a visit.

Also, I have an active speaking schedule in the coming months. The next away date is July 13–14, 2012, when I'll be teaching at the Leadership and Financial Empowerment Conference with Dr. Myles Munroe, Sheila Raye Charles, Michael and Ramona Woods, and our very own John and Judy O'Leary! I would welcome your attendance (and friendly face) if you can make it down to Greensboro, NC. Check my website: www.davewilliams.com for all the details on this and other upcoming events.

Goodbye Good Friend

For many years Mary Jo and I were blessed to call Dick Mills, evangelist, prophet, and man of God our good friend. He not only blessed us personally, but he was a blessing to the entire Mount Hope Church family by bringing his prophetic words of encouragement when he came to visit. I know many people who received a direct word from God through this amazing man. He flowed strongly in the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and was a major figure in the Charismatic Renewal of the Christian church that began in California in the mid 1960s. He passed away on May 25, 2012, at the age of 90, and Mary Jo and I are sure he is now living in a really big mansion in Heaven.

Dick and I wrote a book together a few years ago: How to Be a High Performance Believer in Low Octane Days. This book is about the fruits of the Holy Spirit and how they will help you overcome the problems you face in day-to-day life. Your life is a race; you should run it to win! This book will show you how. I know it will bless you to read it. Robert Glennon, our executive director, thought it would be nice to offer this book at a special price, so look for the flier included with this letter or visit the website at www.davewilliams.com.

I feel so blessed to have so many people who show their love and support to the Strategic Global Mission. Thank you again for everything you do.

Your friend in Jesus,

Dave Williams, President
