DAVE WILLIAMS MINISTRIES
www.davewilliams.com

1. Student must attend each session because the course builds “line upon line.”
2. If a student must miss a session, he or she can make it up by listening to the audio presentation of the missed session, and writing a ten-question exam (with answers). This should be written as if the student were the teacher, writing an exam for a student. No more than four sessions may be made up in this manner. If a student misses more than four sessions, he or she will be required to start over next time.
3. Attend at least ten cohort group sessions to discuss the material in session with other students (visit www.davewilliams.com/PLD for cohort discussion questions)
4. Complete the student manual (workbook)
5. Complete the mid-term exam (visit www.davewilliams.com/PLD to download)
6. Complete the final exam (visit www.davewilliams.com/PLD to download)
7. Have the moderator sign your certificate
