

The Art of Pacesetting Leadership

Final Exam (Open Book)

True or False: Circle T for True / F for False

1. T F Three key characteristics of great leaders are trust, good values, and a vision.
2. T F Boredom can cause stress as much as panic can cause stress.
3. T F One of the key qualities of a Master-level leader is an orientation to results.
4. T F One of the signs of over-stress (or distress) is forgetfulness.
5. T F Three legs to Christian leadership are (1) a servants heart, (2) a teachable attitude, (3) a desire to ever draw closer to Jesus
6. T F Authentic Leadership is "God-made" leadership.
7. T F When teaching, a good teacher will motivate attitudinal changes in the student
8. T F A good teacher will communicate in a way the student understands.
9. T F Character is what you are; competency is what you do.
10. T F The fear of man is a trap!
11. T F God is looking for people with perfect hearts to serve as His leaders on Earth.
12. T F Reliability and dependability are more important than ability.
13. T F Our outer "kingdom" is a reflection of our inner "kingdom."
14. T F Our attitudes will affect every area of our lives, including business and ministry.
15. T F A person who has a wrong attitude may often take things personally and jump to quick conclusions.
16. T F Our level of living will end up being the level of our attitude and thinking.
17. T F A good formula for success is to make yourself more valuable. (Of course you cannot make yourself more valuable to God, but to the marketplace and ministry.)
18. T F Success requires a well-mobilized team.
19. T F Vision is the big picture of your future.
20. T F There is both a goodness side and a severity side of God.
21. T F People without vision typically criticize those with vision.
22. T F Success depends on one's ability to take dreams and visions and convert them into reality.
23. T F God is more interested in obedience than in sacrifice and activity.
24. T F "Orthodoxy" means straight (or correct) doctrine, while "orthopraxy" means straight (or correct) behavior, practice, actions.
25. T F Without faith goals, life becomes aimless.

26. T F A lack of focus is a pitfall leaders must avoid (Matthew 6 :22-23)
27. T F Self-pity and pride are both pitfalls on the leader's path.
28. T F You can add value to your life and leadership by helping others, reading books, and using opportunities.
29. T F As a master level, pacesetting leader, you will never face any dark personalities because they will be afraid of your power.
30. T F God will open doors for you when your preparation meets His opportunities.
31. T F Persistence shows strength of character in the leader's life.
